TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Not until the thirteenth century do we find a mention of a locked tabernacle. There's some evidence for eucharistic towers also, but often these were in an obscure corner of the church, or even in the off-limits sacristy. Many of us grew up "making visits" to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, but it's clear this would raise some medieval eyebrows in confusion! To the present day, the Eucharist is always reserved only in a side chapel in many cathedrals. The principal focus in a cathedral is always on the altar, symbol of Christ, and on the cathedra, symbol of the pastoral ministry of the bishop.

In your parish church there is probably a "sanctuary lamp," a permanently lit candle or oil lamp indicating the presence of the Blessed Sacrament. Sometimes it's in a red glass, not for any particular reason except that it's easy to find. There is a story of a bishop missioned to Papua New Guinea who was distressed to find no sanctuary lamps burning in his new diocese. The people patiently explained that their churches were woven of grass, and that they decided to place a chief's standard, a trident, in front of the tabernacle. That was a sign in their culture that the "chief" was at home, like raising the flag over Buckingham Palace. The bishop, an Irish import, didn't appreciate the British reference, so he ordered the candles back. The first church to burn to the ground was the cathedral, and after two more, the chief's tridents returned.

Help Needed for Easter Vigil Reception

We will be welcoming new members into our church family on Saturday, April 15 as a part of the Easter Vigil. We need your help making the reception a success. Please sign up in the social hall to bring food items for the reception following the Vigil. We will be feeding about three hundred folks, so please help us to make this a success. We are also looking for folks willing to help set-up and serve. If you have questions, please contact Jo Landreth at 828 231-6940 or iammsanders1991@gmail.com.

Easter Masses Open for Scheduling Crunch Time!

Very few people have signed up to serve for the Masses they plan to attend during Holy Week. It is very important that we cover these Masses, which will be heavily attended, and it is important that we have the schedule in place well in advance (for Father Adrian's peace of mind). Please sign up online, or call Suzanne at the office if you are not online. We don't schedule Easter and Christmas Masses automatically to give you some flexibility, but we do need to have a filled schedule in order to continue that practice. Thank you!

Rosary for Peace Every Second Sunday

You are welcome to join us Rosary for Peace at 10:00 am on the second Sunday of each month. We will meet in the church by the statue of Mary next to the organ. The next Rosary will be next Sunday, April 9, at 10:00 am. If you have any questions please contact Kerry Jambon.

Ride to Mass Needed (esp. Easter Sunday)

I received a call this week from a woman who would really like a ride to Mass. She is in her mid to late eighties, and is ambulatory, but uses a cane. I think she is on oxygen, too, but I am not sure if that is full-time. She can walk, but she does need the cane. She lives on North Rugby Road in Hendersonville. And yes, Immaculate Conception is closer, but she says she goes to our church. It sounds like she would like a somewhat regular ride, and is not picky about which Mass, but she expressed special interest in Easter Sunday. Can someone help her out with a ride? Please call Suzanne at the office for the particulars.
