TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The fact that many monastic churches do not have a prominent tabernacle shapes the patterns of liturgical prayer. Monastic communities often protect the ancient value of "receiving from the same sacrifice," meaning that the communicants are assured that what they eat and drink in the Holy Mysteries actually comes from the same celebration. It surprises many to learn that the Church does not foresee, nor does it provide for, Communion of the faithful from the reserved Sacrament. Liturgical laws have long defended your right to receive from the same sacrifice, the same Mass, that you attend.

At one time, of course, the bread for the Eucharist was the ordinary bread of the day, except unleavened, probably prepared at home. It was broken and distributed to the faithful. Early on the loaf itself was referred to as the hostia in Latin, meaning the "sacrifice," the same word for the sacrificial animal in Jewish worship, and for Jesus as the Lamb of God. By giving his life on the cross, Jesus became the hostia for us. To this day in the Greek Church, one of the tasks of the priest's wife is to bake the bread for the Divine Liturgy, sometimes in a bakery oven dedicated to that purpose and called a "Bethlehem."

Today's familiar individual hosts first appeared in the eleventh century at about the time when tabernacles were coming into use. The turn away from "bready" bread allowed the hosts to be reserved since they did not spoil like regular bread, and made the annual "Easter duty" counts easier.

Saint Barnabas Liturgical Schedule And Activities For This Week

We encourage those who request Mass Intentions (Vigil and Sunday Morning) to present the Offertory Gifts at that Mass. Please sign in at the Liturgical Ministers' (round) table and let a Greeter know you would like to bring up the Gifts.

The Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception in Washington, DC is the nation's preeminent Marian shrine, and is oftentimes affectionately referred to as America's Catholic Church. Open 365 days a year, the Basilica is host to nearly one million visitors annually, attracting pilgrims and tourists alike from across the country and around the world.

In the Diocese of Charlotte, we will hold a one-time collection for the Trinity Dome, approved by the body of bishops last November. Proceeds from this collection will assist with the completion of the central and final dome in mosaic, The Holy Trinity. This one-time collection is slated for Mother's Day, Sunday, May 14, 2017.

Rosary for Peace Every Second Sunday

You are welcome to join us for the Rosary for Peace at 10:00 am on the second Sunday of each month. We will meet in the church by the statue of Mary next to the organ. The next Rosary will be next Sunday, 5/14/17, at 10:00 am. If you have any questions please contact Kerry Jambon.

Altar Society to Form

For several years our parish has had a core group of individuals who have graciously volunteered their time to prepare our Sanctuary for all liturgical functions. We are very appreciative to all who have given of themselves in this capacity. In order to spread the work we are in the process of forming an Altar Society. Some of the duties are to clean the Sanctuary, clean the Adoration Chapel, wash the linens, maintain the flowers etc. We are inviting anyone interested in the Altar Society to a formation meeting on Monday, May 8, at 10:00 am. We will meet in the Social Hall. We are asking those already involved to attend this meeting to lend their expertise and experience and to help determine what the needs are. Please sign up in the Social Hall after Mass if you are interested in attending this meeting. If you are interested in the Altar Society but are unable to attend this meeting due to work obligations or something else please sign up and indicate unable to attend meeting. For further information please contact Kerry Jambon at 828-681-1834.

Following his Ordination to the Priesthood on June 17, 2017, Father Peter Ascik will say his First Mass at St Lawrence Basilica at 2:30 pm on Sunday June 18, 2017.

A Reception will follow at 5:00 pm at St Eugene's Catholic Church in Asheville. All are invited. Details to follow!
