We are again attending the National March for Life this January, leaving on the 26th and returning on the 28th via bus. Please sign up in the social hall during the month of October. It is important to give a powerful message of our peaceful and loving resolve to our newly inaugurated president about how we see dignity in every life and this issue is of top concern. We march for those who cannot.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd is now accepting applications for children who are one year away from attending Kindergarten (age 3 or older). Contact the Faith Formation Office for registration forms.

Book of Remembrance

You are invited to write the names of deceased loved ones in our Book of Remembrance, located at the front of the Church near the Baptismal Font. At every Mass in November, as we pray for the dead, we will especially remember those whose names are written in our book.

Anyone concerned about environmental, immigration and other social justice issues is invited to attend a meeting of the North Carolina Chapter of Catholic Committee of Appalachia on Tuesday, November 15 from 10:30 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. at St. Eugene Catholic Church in Asheville including a potluck lunch. For more info, contact Bruce Cahoon at bcagoon@unca.edu or Mary Herr at 828-497-9498 or maryherr@dnet.net.

I want to thank all of those who donated clothing, jackets and reading glasses for the needy psychiatric patients at Mission Hospital, where I work. Many of these patients are poor, and often the clothing they wear into the hospital is beyond repair. Your generous donations have helped us fill out our donation clothing closet just in time for the cold weather approaching. So, you really have clothed the naked! And your generous donations of reading glasses help our patients read (many lose their own glasses, or did not have the money for prescription glasses). So, really you have helped the blind to see! Thank you SO MUCH for your donations, and I'll be back in touch in the spring to replenish our closet for the warmer weather. THANK YOU! - Barbara Edwards, RN

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

In the seventeenth century, English Catholics, many of them wealthy and well educated, looked to the American colonies as a place to regain a measure of religious freedom. In Ireland, the so-called penal laws were even harsher than in England, as a minority Parliament tried to force the conversion of the population by denying the majority political and economic power. Beginning in 1691, laws were passed that punished dissenters, principally Catholics, but also causing hardship for Jews, Quakers, and others. There were acts forbidding "mixed marriage" or sending children "beyond the seas" for schooling. Catholics were taxed at double the common rate, barred from the legal professions and from university, and not allowed to build churches or own a decent horse.

In 1793 the situation began to change, as it became clear that the economic persecution would not drive the majority away from Catholicism. Gradually, laws were repealed until by 1829 freedom was won, although Catholics at university were ineligible for honors, and until the 1920s and the Republic, the Church of Ireland was the state church, funded by the taxes of all citizens.

A Bazaar note to all our congregation of OUR workers

Our days are numbered now and we wanted to get a final word out about the bazaar so everyone will be on the same page. We will be gathering at the church hall on FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 18th to sort, price, and distribute all donations to their correct booths. So, if you have been a secret worker at home or have been cleaning out some White Elephant stuff, please plan on bringing it to the church on that day. No earlier please. Remember the White Elephant booth does not want clothing or shoes. If you'd like to join the handful of volunteers on this day to help with this final phase, please bring your lunch and a drink and come for the day, you will be welcome. You will also get a first-hand glance at all that is being prepared for this hopefully, very successful annual event.

Any questions please call: Mary Valliere 273-7694 or email mayas.lost.in.space@gmail.com or Margie Riffle 243-0340 or email her at bobmargier@hotmail.com

Early Start on Raffle Tickets Available Next Weekend: You will have the opportunity to purchase tickets next weekend on a couple of quilts that will be raffled at the Bazaar. Stop by the table in the social hall and take a look!

Training for Liturgical Care Ministers

The backstage crew is vital for a successful performance of a play. For a successful Liturgy we need backstage volunteers. These are the people who help clean the sanctuary, launder the linens, and clean the sacred vessels. We will have a training session for these three vital ministries on Saturday, Nov 12, from 10am until Noon. There is a sign up sheet in the social hall. Training is for all current volunteers as well as new volunteers.

PLEASE NOTE: Even if you can't come to the training, please write your name, what you do, and the days you do it on the sign-up sheet so that we can get a full picture of what is being done and when. Thank you!

Society of St. Vincent de Paul

We have had a great response to our Holiday Food Drive so far, and we thank you! Some of you have been taking several bags, not just one, and we appreciate the extra generosity. Please return your bags or monetary donations to the church by next Sunday so that we can begin to prepare the baskets. We had mentioned having a washer and dryer available, and someone did call to request them. We do still have one dryer available.

A computer and printer in working order was donated. If you need a computer please give us a call at 684-6098 ext. 308.

Thank you for your ever faithful, always generous support.
