March for Life, Washington D.C. January 27, 2017

We are again attending the National March for Life this January, leaving on the 26th and returning on the 28th via bus. Please sign up in the social hall as soon as possible as seating is limited (we have other churches joining us). It is important to give a powerful message of our peaceful and loving resolve to Donald Trump about how we see dignity in every life and this issue is of top concern. We march for those who cannot.

Join us for Christmas Caroling on Christmas Day!

The youth group will be visiting The Oaks nursing home on 3864 Sweeten Creek to sing for the residents. Oftentimes the residents have people sing for them before Christmas but are feeling lonely on the day of Christ's birth. It is the perfect day to bring the love and joy of the Savior to them! We will meet at The Oaks at 3:00pm, and then proceed to St. Barnabas for a cookie party at 4:00pm. All are welcome to join us!

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Among the Catholics seeking religious freedom in America were the Carrolls of Maryland, who arrived in 1649 from Ireland via England. Charles Carroll, born in Annapolis in 1737, was the only Catholic signer of the Declaration of Independence, and was the longest-surviving signer. As was the custom for English Catholics, he attended English schools in Belgium and later university in France. By the time he signed the Declaration, he was the richest man in America, and his decision to sign would hardly go unnoticed by the king.

Because Carroll was so wealthy and because he was a Catholic, he had more to lose than the others. Those who signed became traitors to the Crown and risked losing everything. It is said that someone grumbled that there were many men in the world named Charles Carroll, and he could dodge responsibility if he had to. For that reason, he added a flair to his signature, "of Carrollton," making it clear that he put everything at risk.

His cousin John, also an ardent supporter of the American Revolution, was ordained a Jesuit priest and returned to Maryland at the outbreak of hostilities. Upheavals in Europe forced the Jesuit order to dissolve, leaving Carroll a secular priest. Ultimately, it was John Carroll who was asked to organize the Catholic Church in the new nation. No one was better positioned for this task, a cultured man from an esteemed family, a cherished friend of Benjamin Franklin and George Washington, and a man so thoroughly attuned to an undercurrent of anti-Catholicism in the colonies that he could charm powerful people to a new point of view.

Our Lord Jesus Christ,
King of the Universe

November 20, 2016

I rejoiced because they said to me,
"We will go up to the house of the Lord."

— Psalm 122:1

GOD'S HEALING JUSTICE

An old expression holds that the sun-warmed stone heals. Perhaps. But Malachi explains that only dark, sunless days are in store for those who do not find a place for God in their lives. Conversely, he tells us that the warmth and light of God's healing justice await those who fear the Lord. That's a pretty comforting notion—especially now in the already short and growing even shorter days of November. It's the sun-warmed stone, and then some.

Paul speaks to us of justice as well, but points out that it is not a passive thing. To be treated justly, we need to do our fair share. If we are diligent and persevere we will be rewarded with and by the fruits of our labor. Lastly, Luke, too, tells us to persevere—in faith, this time—and our lives will be secure in God regardless of how we are treated by our enemies.

Society of St. Vincent de Paul

It has been a very busy week for us! Finding room for all the donations we have received has been a real challenge this year, but one we have been grateful to tackle.

As of this writing we have 64 families, comprised of 189 adults and 155 children. A variety of ethnicities is represented, including Caucasians, African Americans, Hispanics, and even one family from Micronesia.

There will be 115 gallons of milk, 10 dozen eggs, and 100 pounds of oleo distributed.

The Thanksgiving Dinner menu is one to make your mouth water, with the variety of foods that will go to each family. Read the menu at left and see if you agree!

Underneath the menu is the rest of the story. We also provide foods for other meals. Having a tasty, nourishing Thanksgiving Dinner is a wonderful thing, but our clients also appreciate us taking care of their other fundamental food needs. So we try to cover some breakfasts, lunches, and other dinners as well.

And, as we have mentioned before, paper goods and other non-food items are needed, too, and can't be bought with food stamps.

And none of this could have been done without your continued, faithful support, so we offer our humble appreciation to you, and wish you a Blessed Thanksgiving Holiday.
